VILLAGE AND BUILDING LOTS IN FRANKLIN, Pa .- A rare chance is offered to those who vish to purchase village lots in Fracklir; Pennsylvania, for the purpose of building ereon. Dr. G. W. Stewart, and Charles E. Wiswall, of New York, have recently purchised seventy five acres of land from Samuel F. Dale, Esq., of Franklin, at a cost of about $100,000, which they have laid out in village lots to meet the constantly increasing demands of the public, who are lesizons of building in that favored locality a

No person, on examination, can fail to see the decided advantages, of situation, ac., of these lots over all others in the vicinity of Franklin. They are situated very near the A. & G. W. Railroad, within easy communication with the cars, are dry and level and ecommand a fine view of Franklin and its surrounding country, making it admirable opportunities to see the interior n most delightful as well as advantageous place of residence. Said lots are laid out sixty feet front by one hundred and fifty feet deep, separated by alleys, making them of convenient size and arrangement for gardens and out tuildings.
A main street, one hundred feet wide, passes through the centre of the area, half of which has been laid out in lots for stores and other business purposes. Four scres have been reserved for a large hotel. This volume is a collection of short essays on a variety of commonplace topics, written after the manner of "Essays on Social Subjects," published in the "Saturday Rewiew." But these papers do not hint strongly of the pithy good sease, keen observation, geniul criticism and epigrammetic point of the English book. And yet good thoughts, expressed in style quaint, numerous and forcible, are not entirely wanting.
